CLAS AGM DAY

SATURDAY 9th MARCH 2019
AT THE BRITISH LIBRARY CONFERENCE CENTRE
96 Euston Road, London NW1 2DB
10.15am – 4pm

Put the date in your diary and send off the booking form as soon as you can.

This year you will be able to make a payment on line (see our website and below) as well as by sending a cheque with the completed paper slip by post. Everyone is encouraged to attend, all members of CLAS have a vote and every vote counts. If you want to bring friends, they are very welcome, but please inform them that they cannot participate in the morning's meeting. We also need to know their names for security reasons. (NB if you pass on your ticket to another CLAS member, we also need to know the name of that person, for the same reason.)

IT WILL BE A VERY SPECIAL DAY! HERE IS THE PROGRAMME

- The Afternoon Lecture: Miriam Londoño. Miriam is an international artist who writes with paper pulp creating 3-dimensional nets of expressive text.
- Keiko Shimoda will be demonstrating pointed brush calligraphy.
- Tom Kemp FCLAS will be our Artist in Residence and will be showing and discussing his work
- Our New Fellow – Barbara Alldred FCLAS will be showing her work.
- Art and the Letter 22nd exhibition, with comments on all the entries
- Certificate of Skills – Heraldry – with Tim Noad FCLAS
- National Diploma A display of photographs of work submitted in 2018
- Help desks where members can seek advice on Fellowship, the Diploma and tutoring classes.
- CLAS sales.
- Shepherds Bookbinders Paper sales pop up shop.
- Cornelissen with a selection of their calligraphy and artists materials sales.
- There will be a 10% discount voucher for the British Library Bookshop, to named ticket holders for the day.
