

A charity registered with the Charity Commission No. 1046526

SATURDAY 11th MARCH 2017
AT THE BRITISH LIBRARY 10.15AM – 4 PM

Put the date in your diary and send off the booking form below as soon as you can.

This year we will again be at the Conference Centre of the British Library for our AGM, exhibitions and sales, Art and the Letter entries and the afternoon lecture.

Everyone is encouraged to attend – after all, all members of CLAS have a vote at the AGM and every vote counts. If you want to bring a friend, we are happy for you to do so. Do remind your companions that, although they may attend, they cannot participate in the morning’s meeting. We also need to know the names of all the people who will be there, for security reasons. (NB if you pass on your ticket to another CLAS member, we also need to know the name of that person, for the same reason.)

IT WILL BE A VERY SPECIAL DAY. HERE IS WHAT WE HAVE TO OFFER

- The Afternoon Lecture Dr Christopher de Hamel, internationally celebrated author and lecturer on medieval manuscripts. His latest book and title of his lecture is ‘Meetings with Remarkable Manuscripts’ which has been reviewed as a cultural highlight of 2016.
- Rosella Garavaglia FCLAS will be demonstrating brush lettering.
- Jan Pickett FCLAS will be our Artist in Residence and will be showing and discussing her work
- An exhibition, with comments, of all the entries to the 20th Art and the Letter.
- A display of photographs of work submitted in 2016 for the National Diploma.
- Help desks where members can seek advice on Fellowship, the Diploma and tutoring classes.
- CLAS sales.
- Bring and Buy A chance to sell what you do not need and buy cheaply from others - books and materials only.
- Paper sales. Pop up shop from Shepherds Falkiners.
- Cornelissen with a discounted selection of their calligraphy and artists materials sales.
- There will be a 10% discount voucher for the British Library Bookshop, to named ticket holders for the day.
